

The Passaic County Bar Association Presents

"Memory on Trial: The Science and Law of Eyewitness Identification"

Despite advances in forensic science and the growing presence of surveillance technologies in modern society, eyewitness evidence still plays a crucial role in the successful prosecution of perpetrators. In the U.S. eyewitness testimony is also among the leading causes of wrongful conviction. Montclair State University Professors Jason Dickson, Ph.D and Joseph Del Russo, JD will explore the science of memory error, recent case law, and current recommendations for collecting and preserving eyewitness evidence.
